NUMBER 25.

A SONG FOR THE MILLION!

Come all ye jolly farmers
And listen to my song,
Sit down awhile contented,
I'll not detain you long.
Likewise you, lovely ladies,
Who wish to ride with ease,
Just call upon Anderson & Boyd,
I'm sure they can you please.
Their saddles are the cheapest
That's to be had in town;
For neatness and for comfort
Their equine can't be found.
And as for their harness,
They're really hard to beat,
For strength and durability
None with them can compete.
They're of the best materials
The country can afford,
And made by as good workmen
As ever stood at a board.
They sell harness, blankets and bits,
Lap robes, bridles and collars that fit,
And whips that are long,
And work that is strong.
If you have work to repair,
And want dealings that's fair,
To Anderson & Boyd you should go
To get prices that are very low.

—Mr. W. H. Watts, of the vicinity of Mound City, gave us a pleasant call last week.

—Mrs. Benjamin Harris, who has been seriously ill for some time, is now much improved.

—Mrs. Anna Steib of this city, is visiting her brother, Gustav Roecker, of Mound City.

—Uncle Levi Dodge, of Mound City, was smiling on his many friends in Oregon this week.

—E. P. Hostetter is now receiving fresh oysters, and it is just the place to be served nicely.

—Uncle Jake Foster, we are glad to learn, is now almost completely recovered from his late illness.

—Mrs. John Harmon and her son, Joseph, and family, left last Thursday on a visit to Seneca, Kansas.

—Remember the lecture of Dr. Thomas at Mound City, on the 21st. You should hear this able divine.

—Mrs. Letitia Perkins, who are sorry to learn, has been very sick for several days. She is now improving.

—Mr. Samuel Hardy, living six miles east of Oregon, wants to sell his farm—good improvements, orchard, etc.

—Ab. Wilson and wife took their departure for Omaha, last Sunday, which place they will make their future home.

—Go and see those elegant Robes and Blankets that D. M. Martin is selling so cheap. Finest assortment ever brought to Holt county.

—Miss Eva Kibbler, of Clarinda, Iowa, will attend our N. W. school this winter. She arrived Wednesday, and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Ora Hunt.

—Lost—On the road between the towns of G. R. Doul and Forest City, last Thursday, a coin silver gaudet glove. Finder will be rewarded by returning same to this office.

—That enterprising daily, the St. Joseph Gazette, issued a handsome railroad edition last Monday, showing the lines that now enter there, and proposed roads that will enter that place.

—The holders of the East Forest City Mill Company are requested to meet in F. C. Saturday, Nov. 24, '88, all are requested to be present, as business of importance is to be transacted.

—Mr. J. J. Thompson, living five miles southeast of Mound City, looked in on us last week. He advertises his farm for sale in this issue of the SENTINEL, good orchard, water, timber, etc.

—George Hibbard our efficient assessor has completed his list-taking and will commence on his list on the coming week. We believe his assessment will prove the most satisfactory of any that has been made for years.

—The well known firm of Zook & Canon have just finished refitting their mill from basement to garret with the latest, improved machinery of the day. Four men and feed constantly on hand give them a trial. ZOOK & CANON, Forest City, Mo.

—Mrs. Mary Beran, after a pleasant visit with relatives in Denton, Texas, returned home last Wednesday. She says there is quite a contrast between Holt county and Texas. When she left Texas flowers of all kinds were blooming out doors, and here all is changed, not a flower or anything green, except those that are kept in houses.

—The magnificent new residence of Mr. Gelvin is about completed. Mr. Jeremiah Kelley, finishing the carpenter work last week. It is one of the best farm residences in the country; it is 32x32, two stories high, and has twelve rooms. Mr. Sam. Simpson did the plastering, John Greene, the painting and Mr. Holwig, the man-of-work.

—On the 13th inst., there was served on John Bucher, treasurer of our county, a notice by the holders of the Court House warrants, not to pay out any money recently taken from said fund, and placed in the officers and contingent fund by our county court, and it is supposed a similar notice will be served on the members of the court. It is claimed by the warrant holders that the order of the court is null and void and will be no protection to the treasurer if he obeys it. That they have no right to disturb the money set aside to pay the Court House warrants at least until a decision is reached in the Supreme Court.

—Mr. George Burkhalter and Miss Katie Maupin, were married at the residence of Dr. Johnston, in Craig, on Tuesday evening of last week. The charming little bride has many warm friends in Oregon. Her school companions, express their regret at her early departure from their circles, to take upon herself the responsibilities of the wife; yet we have this to say to them, that with the blessing of a noble father and mother, and the counsel of mature years of each, and her self the possessor of a womanly mind, she will reap the benefits of a well spent and happy married life. The sooner a young man settles down and makes a home for himself the better. He will then have a competency for his old age, which is greatly to be desired. Years thrown away can never be recovered. They are lost forever, and all the regrets and sorrows can never bring them back. This SENTINEL extends its good wishes.

—We have a farm of 160 acres for sale. Call at this office.

—Miss Lydia Bucher, who is at the home of her brother, John, was dangerously ill last Monday, but is now much better.

—Mrs. Robert Swallow, after a week's visit with friends in this city, left for her home in Nodaway county on Monday.

—We had pleasant calls Wednesday from the following Mail carriers: H. Herzhberger, Charley Donovan and Esquire E. L. Hart.

—The Orchard City Wagon, or the Milburn Buggies have no superior in quality, material or workmanship. H. C. Schmidt, Oregon, Missouri, sells them.

—Ab. Greene received a severe fall Thursday last, from an eighteen foot ladder, while putting up the residence of James Vaughn. We understand he is now able to be out.

—The appointment of Howard Chambers as constable of Clay township is a most excellent one, and the county court is to be congratulated on making so excellent an appointment.

—Wm. Kiesel, one evening last week, entertained a large number of his young friends on the occasion of his eighteenth birthday. The party occurred at the residence of his parents in Lincoln district.

—Fe. d. Rostock, Jr., has a few second hand sewing machines, good as new, for sale cheap. A genuine bargain. He also has a few brand new machines just from the factory, which he will sell low down for cash.

—Of all the men in the employ of the C. R. road, none is better suited to the place of conductor than Ed Kennedy. The public are profuse in their praises of his operation of his train. He is a man of a literary turn and has accumulated at his home a nice collection of books.

—Dr. Thomas of Chicago, will lecture in Mound City, on the 21st inst. Dr. Thomas will "Reply to Ingelsoll," and as he is one of the ablest divines of Chicago, the people of this section should go and hear him. Reserved seats are now on sale at Coraust & Myers.

—Gossip, a new candidate for favor made its appearance last Monday. It is a semi-monthly, devoted to literature and fun. The next issue will be enlarged to a four column quarto. It will contain one or two continued stories, literary, art and go-as-it-comes. It will be published in future by Frank Evans and Grant Holtz. Subscription price is 75 cents per year; 50 cents for six months.

—Esquire Seelie, of Upper Holt, has been a resident of our county for forty years, and we are sorry to learn that he is desirous of selling his land—800 acres, with the view of going west. Why he should want to leave old Holt is beyond our understanding. Heit has no desire to lose such first-class citizens, and we hope he will change his mind and conclude to remain in Holt the remainder of his days.

—Judge Henry S. Kelley, is at present engaged in the revision of his work on Probate law. It will be a work well worthy a place in every lawyer's library as one of a strong and mature judicial mind. Remarkable is his power to adjust and express in simple and doctrine, and this promises to be one of his ablest written works. He has done much to lighten the work of the lawyer, and the legal fraternity will hail this work with pleasure. No man in the State is so well qualified to do it as Judge Kelley.

—George Anderson, Sterling Stevenson, and Major McCoy were in attendance at the great sale of Palfrey and Galloway cattle at Kansas City, last week. Judge Anderson purchased an Angus and Galloway heifer, and the celebrated Angus bull, "Nabob," he is one year old and weighs 1200 pounds. Mr. Stevenson purchased the Angus bull, "Major George," one year old, weight, 1190, and a Galloway heifer, a-year months old, weight, 650 pounds. Messrs. Brown & McCoy purchased three Galloway heifers.

—Married, at the residence of Mr. Henry Young, 18th, 1883, by Rev. T. D. Roberts, Mr. John Moore, and Miss Alice Young, both of this county. After the wedding, the guests were invited out to a houseful supper, to which all did ample justice, except the preacher, who was suffering with a severe headache; but Matthew Gelvin more than made up his loss. The young married couple are among the excellent of the community, and they have the well wishes of all who know them. They will make their home on the prairie, in the northern part of the county.

—One of the most traveled roads in Holt county is the road between Oregon and Forest City; and yet it is in almost an impassible condition. It should be fixed immediately. If the proper authorities will not do their duty, the citizens of Oregon and Forest City should take hold and raise enough money by subscription to at least make the road so that the lives of those who pass over it will not be in constant danger. In some places it is almost impossible for a wagon to pass along without running off into five to fifteen feet deep. If this road is not attended to, and that right away, our readers need not be surprised to hear of some wagon, team and occupants going off into one of those gulches, and if not killed, seriously injured.

—Go to D. M. Martin for horse Blankets.

—Robert Profit has moved to Fillmore, Mo.

—Albert Roecker and wife, spent Sunday in Mound City.

—Dr. Tracy has purchased the Asa Higgins farm in Upper Holt.

—H. C. Pepper, formerly an attorney at Mound City, is now practicing law in Belle Plaine, Kansas.

—Dan Smith, who lives near Bigelow, lost about a hundred dollars worth of money one day last week, by his team running away.

—Mrs. Henry Thomas, of Craig, spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Geo. P. Luckhardt.

—Harvey Ramsey is the proudest man in Holt county. A nice little baby girl arrived at his house Tuesday last week.

—We acknowledge a delightful ride with E. Vanbuskirk last Thursday. He has, in our opinion, the finest two-year old in the county.

—D. M. Martin's large stock of Robes, Blankets, etc., have arrived and he is now prepared to furnish all who call, at prices that defy competition.

—Mrs. J. W. Zook, of St. Joseph, and her interesting daughter, Mabel, are in our midst, the guest of Mrs. Zook's sister, Mrs. Geo. P. Luckhardt.

—There is no lighter running or more perfect wagon made than the Orchard City. It is fully warranted. For sale by H. C. Schmidt, Oregon, Missouri.

—Jeremiah Atkins, a brother of Wm. Atkins, who hails from Randolph county, Indiana, arrived in our county last Thursday, and will locate in Hickory township, near New Point.

—George P. Luckhardt disposed of quite a number of his Poland China hogs last week, shipping thirteen to Watson, Mo., one to Nebraska, and seven to Oregon.

—Do you want a strictly first-class Buggy or Wagon? Call at the Center, where you can get a bargain that you will never regret. H. C. SCHMIDT, Prop., Oregon, Mo.

—Rev. S. Carothers will preach at the Triumph school house next Sunday at eleven o'clock, at the United Brethren church at 2:30 p.m., and in Oregon at night. All are invited to worship at these services.

—P. M. Zook, the photographer, is now prepared to make you as good pictures as any taken in the county, at a low price. He also has a large stock of picture frames for sale cheap. Don't fail to give him a call. He does nothing but first-class work.

—Married, at the residence of Mrs. Snider, on Kinsey Creek, three miles northwest of Oregon, Mr. John B. and Miss Mary Devors, last Sunday, November 11th, 1888. Rev. A. J. Ingelsoll, officiating. The bride and groom, after congratulations, and wishes them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

—The race on last Thursday at Mound City, between Cropp's mare "Mound City Belle," and N. J. Kyger's horse, "Bronks," was the most exciting and largely attended of any race that has ever been held in our county. Cropp's mare had been purchased no doubt for the express purpose of defeating Bronks, and much money was offered on her, and found ready takers by the friends of Bronks. With much gush and blow on the part of the friends of Cropp's mare, we were made that Bronks' friends would soon cease "putting up" on their horse, fearing his defeat; but they were badly fooled, as Bronks' backers, the Belle soon showed of money, and were ready to cover every bet. These bets were all won by the Bronks betters and given up manfully. The chief betting on the race was then resumed—as much as $200 being put on both horses. Start after start was made, and every time Bronks would make a leap, eager to go in earnest, but was only called back time and again. Cropp's mare evidently did not know what was in Bronks, neither her rider or her friends. From the jockeying and playing, it was evident to every one that some bad money was going on. The owners of the horses finally agreed that they should be started, no different cent one horse should have a little start of the other. The Cropp mare was held to the score by her owner and trainer, and at the word "go" both horses led off finely, with Bronks slightly in the lead; the Belle soon gained her loss at the start and was neck and neck with Bronks, but the horse was too much for the Belle, for he soon shot out ahead, and constantly increased the gap between them—Bronks winning the race with ease and by some seventy-five feet. As the horse was gaining, the backers of the mare immediately began a general "kicking," yelling "bet-off," "no start," etc. These few "king high kickers," who always create trouble at such places, refused to give up the stakes, even the owner of the mare refused to give up the principal stake, declaring the race to be unfair, etc.—in fact the stakes were not surrendered until the best business men insisted on a fair transaction, and the turning over of the stakes, as the race was a fair one and Bronks was justly the winner by a large majority. The prize stake was finally turned over, but all side bets were declared off, notwithstanding the bitter feeling of the crowd. In the sporting world, we believe, the "kicker" is looked upon with scorn and when once known to the fraternity, is generally given the "go-by" by all his former associates, and we regret that the owner of the "Belle" acted so unprofessional in this race; it will only result to his injury, and we trust that he will make amends by insisting on the payment of all side bets. "Indian Jack," the rider of "Bronks," is a first-class rider, and he covered all bets manfully and made the rider of the "Belle," cry "enough," "out of soap," etc.

COUNTY COURT.

The regular November term of the Holt County Court convened on the 5th inst., all the judges of the court being present.

Peter Dearmont, John Schrantz, and Christian Neidhauser were appointed Jurors on the road petition of G. P. Skeeles, et al., with instructions to view the premises.

D. A. Baker, John Rice and Marlon Wilson were selected as jurors to view the road petitioned for by F. Baker, et al.

A. J. Sutton presented a petition paying for vacation of old road in consequence of new road being opened, the court ordered that portion of the old road as prayed for be vacated.

The court appointed Howard Chambers, constable of Clay township.

The court by reason of the resignation of E. Thayer, as Justice of the Peace of Clay township, appointed Albion Boring, to fill such vacancy.

E. C. Gibson petitioned for vacation of road in Sec. 15, T. 16, R. 30 which was granted by the court.

John Bridgman, tendered his resignation as constable of Bigelow township which was accepted.

The road petition of M. A. Duff was dismissed.

The court ordered that the following transfer of money from the court house improvement fund be made: $6,000 to the officers fund and $2,000 to the contingent fund.

John H. Lynde was granted ferry license.

W. H. Richards, as swamp land agent was instructed to correspond with the representatives in Congress from Missouri, relative to the extension of the indemnity act to some date later than March 3, 1857.

The court granted the following licenses: C. C. Cropp, Mound City, J. P. Coffey, Mound City, J. D. Beeler, Forest City, Wm. Barges, Forest City, F. B. Springs, Maitland, W. S. Cat, Bigelow.

In the road petitioned for by W. H. Patch, the road commissioner made report, and the court approved the amount of damage $112.50 and ordered said road be established.

The court issued a warrant for $18.40 for clothing to be a pauper. The average citizen chuck full of life would be glad to have such a suit. We cannot understand such extravagance.

A meeting was called at the M. E. church, on Monday evening Nov. 12, for the purpose of deciding whether or not to give a dinner and festival on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 29th, 1888. LENA BUNKER, Sec.

A FAREWELL.

Barchaba Zuck, wife of Mr. Abram Zuck, died at her residence in Oregon, Mo., Nov. 12th, 1888, aged eighty years. She had been married to her now deceased husband sixty years, by which union they were blessed with eight children, even of whom are still living, and are distributed over two or three different States, having families of their own.

For a number of years the dear old lady's health had been declining and diseased with old age, brought to a close a well rounded and useful life. She had been a good mother, a kind neighbor, and an affectionate wife. For sixty years she held membership in the M. E. church, and died as she had lived quietly and peacefully. Father Zuck now nearly eighty-five years old, is left to carry on while among his children, who will kindly see that no good thing is withheld from him. Mr. Charles Barram has tenderly looked after the interests of his grand-children for several years, and administered to the wants of his grand-mother till the close of her life. To the large circle of relatives and friends, the sympathies of the general public are extended. The funeral services were conducted in the M. E. church by Rev. S. Carothers, attended by a large and sympathetic audience. X.
